

2025 ARTISTS RESIDENCY

Proposal for Poetry Workshops

ChacalLit seeks Proposals from Poets/Teachers for a Writer in Residence Program 2025.

The schedule for this residency would be held in January or February 2025. The residency will run from Monday-Thursday, with a public reading by the poet and students, as well as members of the community on Tuesday or Friday evenings.

The classes will run from approximately 9-12, with afternoons free to finish writing prompts or to explore. On Thursday or Friday evening, there will be a community Open Mic night in which the Poet/Teacher and participants can share their work first, followed by others in the community.

For a one week residency, the selected Poet/Teacher will be paid a $100 per student stipend, for 8-10 students.

ChacalLit will provide room and breakfast during the one week residency. The Poet/Teacher will provide the following:

Poetry Writing Now: The selected Poet/Teacher will offer themes at his or her own choosing.

It would also be desirable for workshops for students in the local schools, depending on the agreement of the Poet/Teacher.

To submit a proposal, send by email or WhatsApp to:

djbiviano@me.com * 1-509-964-3001